

WASHINGTON TIMES
15 July 1983

RECEIVED

2A

---

BRIEFLY / Capital

---

Documents called Soviet forgeries

The State Department said yesterday the Soviet Union was responsible for the forgeries of two purported official U.S. documents which sought to link Bulgaria and the Soviet Union to the 1981 assassination attempt on Pope John Paul II.

Department spokesman John Hughes said the forgeries fit a pattern of fabrications by the Soviet secret police, the KGB, which have been circulating in Europe.